OKLAHOMA-TEXAS GUARD COMBINED

Two States Form Sixty-Fourth Division of Militia Under New Plan.

ORDER FORMALLY APPROVED

National Guard Reorganized Under National Defense Act, as Amended.

NINETIETH TO BE PRESERVED

Name Will Be Applied to Unit of Regular Army; Two Regiments for State.

World's Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The war department in a statement signed by Maj. Gen. Jesse M. Carter, chief of the militia bureau, today announced the complete plan for the reorganization of the national guard under the national defense act as amended by the appropriation bill passed on June 11.

Texas and Oklahoma were grouped together in division No. 64 and if some action in the two states will form the sixty-fourth division in the army instead of the thirty-sixth in the war with Germany. Complete plans were tonight sent to Adjutant General Barrett of Oklahoma and Adjutant General Harley of Texas.

No national guard now exists in most of the states, General Carter said, and advised an early organization. The two southwestern states will furnish the following units to the division:

Oklahoma: Two regiments infantry, one battalion field artillery, one company engineers, one signal company (wire), one field hospital, one ambulance company.

Texas: Three regiments infantry, six companies cavalry, one regiment field artillery, one company engineers, one signal company (wire), one field hospital, one ambulance company.

The strength of the Oklahoma national guard, because of the small military appropriation for the fiscal year 1920, will be two thousand men and that of the Texas will be four thousand enlisted men.

In connection with the numerical designation of the new Oklahoma and Texas guard, the sixty-fourth division, the war department calls attention to the fact that the ninetieth division is to be numerically perpetuated in the skeleton organization of the regular army and the thirty-sixth will be the designation of third division raised from these states in case an emergency arises requiring it.

SOUTHERN STATES FURNISH THIRD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—Southern states east of the Mississippi river and the states of Texas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas will be permitted to furnish approximately one-third of the national guard strength of the nation under reorganization plans approved today by Secretary Baker.

Southern states are authorized in letters of notification sent out today by the bureau of militia affairs, to the respective state adjutant generals, to form 17 regiments and five battalions of infantry, out of a total of 47 regiments and 18 battalions of that service arm contemplated in the new organization. In addition, those heavily represented in the coast artillery branch.

Strength 440,000. The basis used in assigning the national guard strength is that of 333 men for each senator and representative, fixing the nation's national guard strength at about 440,000 men. Available appropriations, however, will permit a strength of only about 16,000 during 1920, or a base of 200 men for each senator and representative.

The southern states Texas was assigned the largest number of units, six regiments of cavalry, three regiments of infantry, one field artillery, one regiment of coast artillery, four regiments of infantry and one regiment of cavalry.

Virginia ranks second in the list. The letters sent to the state adjutant generals authorize them to begin organizing immediately. Reorganization will be given by the war department as soon as inspections show the units qualified to receive federal support.

Bomb Throwers Insane. J. H. Brown, July 16.—Dr. William H. Brown, director of the psychiatric laboratory of the city hospital, today said that several of the men who threw bombs at the state capitol in Dallas last week were insane.

Responsibility Still Taken for Campaign Against Preparedness Measure.

World's Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—As a result of the demand made upon the railroad administration for an immediate decision on Oklahoma oil rates by Congressman Howard following his conference last week with Tulsa traffic managers, Max Theiler, rate man for the administration, late today sent to Congressmen Howard a schedule which would be put into effect unless there is objection from Oklahoma shippers.

In a communication sent with schedule Theiler said that Director General Hines is ready to grant a hearing to Oklahoma refiners at once. Immediately upon receiving the communication and giving it temporary attention, Mr. Howard hurried it into the mail for Tulsa.

Mr. Howard expects that after it is examined by oil men there will be a verdict reached as to its acceptance, or Tulsa men decide to have the proffered hearing, he will be notified and then can proceed.

Because of the lateness of the arrival of the communication and the proposed schedule and his desire to get one copy sent him to Tulsa, Mr. Howard was unable to make it the study he would have liked. He will get another copy tomorrow.

Mr. Howard tonight believed that victory is near in the oil freight rate case.

Offer New Schedule on State Oil Rates; Hearing to be Held

Conservative Members of the House Take Action to Limit Provisions.

FEAR NATION'S RESENTMENT

President's Veto Also Faces Radicals in Outlining New Measure.

WOULD NOT PERMIT DRINK

Making of Cider or Having Jug at Home Would Now Make Arrest Possible.

World's Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Conservative members of the prohibition faction in the house set out today to curb what they described as radical attempts to make the pending enforcement bill so drastic that it might create a revolution of feeling throughout the country on the whole question of liquor drinking.

Warning was given by the conservatives that if the radical element went too far and added other severe restrictions they would be certain to invite defeat in the senate and possibly find all of their work thrown out by a presidential veto.

The need of wise counsel was pointed out by the conservative prohibitionists in view of the published announcement that Representative Morgan, republican of Oklahoma, and a member of the judiciary committee, had given notice that he would endeavor to make it a violation of law for a man to keep a jug of liquor in his own home for his own use.

Word was spread during the day that other prohibitionists were preparing to write into the bill a provision which would prohibit a man's "being" any little liquor he might happen to have around the house. Under the bill now before the house it is entirely doubtful.

The farmer's wife who makes a sugar whiskey wine at home for use in her own family, Mr. Fox said, could be prosecuted and sent to jail. The farmer's home where a little cider is made for the family would be a nuisance under the law, according to Mr. Fox, who declared:

"There were many informal conferences at which some of the drastic provisions of the bill, as pointed out by Representative Fox, democrat of North Carolina, and a pioneer prohibitionist, were called upon like a bar room ghost, to keep the radicals from going too far."

Farmer's Wife Included. The farmer's wife who makes a sugar whiskey wine at home for use in her own family, Mr. Fox said, could be prosecuted and sent to jail.

More Houses Needed. "If we do not build the towns will cease to grow, for it cannot expand when there are no housing facilities. The limited supply places a premium upon a house that is for rent. For present there is a greater demand for housing facilities in the city of Tulsa than there is a supply."

War is "Scarcecrow." "If war is the same old scarcecrow talk by the same old lazy vulgar men who make human life, seldom their own, the staple in their so-called battle of brains."

"I feel that this cry for the training of men to kill other men and for the placing of the army and navy as a burden on the nation is a false conception of patriotism and treason to the life of the people."

The United States has spent more than a billion dollars on a navy and army that would cope with an invasion that never occurred and never will occur, and yet the very war experts who are responsible for that burdensome army and navy admit that our army and navy never would have been able to meet, with any hope of success, those of other so-called powers."

Pressed by Mr. Stevenson as to what he meant by such statements, Mr. Ford repeatedly remarked that it was in the book it was true. The whole effect of his replies was that by preparedness he meant a preparedness greater than was needed for defense and he regarded the army and navy of 1918, when President Wilson was making a tour of the country urging the necessity for increasing the size of the army and navy.

Senate Expected to Take Action on Requests for More Information.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—In an aggressive effort to diminish senate opposition to the treaty with Germany, President Wilson will begin at the white house tomorrow a series of personal talks with republican senators.

With his reiterated offer to consult with the foreign relations committee accepted and with his opponents on the republican side indicating no purpose to seek his counsel, the president decided today to adopt the more direct method of inviting republican members to the white house and laying before them one after another his reason for asking that the treaty be ratified.

Names Withheld. A half dozen senators, whose names were withheld, were asked to meet the president tomorrow and it was indicated that the invitations would be a daily feature until Mr. Wilson had seen most of the republican members of the senate ratifying body. During the day he selected 15 whom he desires to see this week.

The president's letters of invitation, sent out by mail, late in the day, had not been republican tonight and there was much speculation as to the choices he had made for tomorrow's conference.

Pending receipt of the invitations, senators reserved their opinions as to the move, although republican leaders opposing the treaty in its present form did not hesitate to predict that the white house talks would result in a lessened opposition to unreserved ratification.

STRIKE AT MUSKOGEE IS AT LAST SETTLED

Arbitration Plan Agreed Upon by Traction Company and Striking Carmen; Service to Start.

GOVERNOR TO NAME 5TH MAN

Each Side Names Two—Walkout Lasted for Seven Weeks—Whose Plan Is Finally Accepted.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., July 16.—Muskogee's street car strike was settled today after a tie-up that lasted several weeks. Settlement was effected as a result of an arbitration plan put through by Mayor John L. Wason, providing that the company and men name two arbitrators and the four thus selected pick a fifth. In the event of a failure on their part to agree on the fifth man within six hours, Governor Robertson will be asked to name the mediator and it is provided that if the governor delegates the fifth man he will be a non-resident of Muskogee county.

Manager H. B. Long of the Muskogee Electric Traction, affirmed his signature to the arbitration plan this afternoon almost immediately upon his return to the city from a brief business trip. The union carmen had put their official stamp of approval on it late last night. Manager Long said it was not as fair in his opinion as some which the company had accepted before, but he added that he realized the people had to be considered and he was glad to reach any sort of an agreement that was just.

It is provided in the agreement approved by the city council that the street car company shall get an increase of 5 cents. Whether an effort to get a 6 or 7-cent fare will be made will not be decided until after the arbitration board goes into the affairs of the company. Manager Long desires to resume service tomorrow and so far as is known nothing stands in the way.

It is provided in the agreement that service shall be resumed within 48 hours after the document was signed. That would make Friday afternoon the latest time the men could delay resumption of traffic. However, all parties now are pledged to abide by the findings of the arbitration board and there is believed to be no reason why service cannot be started Thursday. The only thing standing in the way of this is the fact that many of the union carmen have been employed in other capacities in the last few weeks and it is not certain that all of them can get away before Thursday night.

TULSA POLICEMAN HELD UP AND LOSES HIS GUN

It happened—a Tulsa policeman arrested with a loaded gun in a street shooter was held up about 11:30 o'clock last night at the corner of Brady and North Chouteau.
